

Deborah Ross, Director of Leasing, Pine Street Group

Deborah Ross has more than 15 years of experience in commercial real estate and retail. She is currently responsible for retail leasing for Pine Street Group L.L.C., and is managing all restaurant and retail leasing and ground floor uses for the Washington State Convention Center Addition and two adjacent co-development properties. Previously, Deborah has led retail leasing efforts at Westfield Southcenter, Vancouver Mall, Pacific Place, and Pine Street Group's street retail in downtown Seattle, negotiating deals with local and national tenants from Tom Douglas Restaurants to the first Arc'Teryx store in the US. A native Seattleite and strong believer in downtown, Deborah also managed the Downtown Seattle Association's Retail Program, connecting landlords, developers, retailers and brokers to improve Seattle's retail core. Deborah is a University of Washington graduate, and earned a Certificate in Commercial Real Estate from UW in 2005. Deborah has served as chair of the Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW) Community Outreach Committee, and on the International Council of Shopping Center's (ICSC) NextGen Committee, and is active in ICSC, Urban Land Institute and Plymouth Housing Group.
